INFORMATION NOTE

This is to inform you that the Rondebosch police station had a problem with the Telkom exchange box. Telkom's feedback was that the exchange box had finally burnt out due to all the load shedding over time. The system is so outdated, they could not fix it, and the SAPS Provincial office is currently busy with the approval for a new one.

Please use 021 6852476. It will ring at the front desk (CSC ), but the 6857345 will ring at the exchange, which is not working. Then please don't forget 10111. Remember that when you call 10111 you might not prefer it, but the call is logged and the complaint can be traced,
